DIA Member

STAT

FROM:

[REDACTED]
Acting Chairman

SUBJECT:

Review of DCID 1/10

1. As you will recall, you and the other members agreed at the 20 May 1981 SECOM meeting that DIA should chair an ad hoc working group to review DCID 1/10, "Security Policy Guidance on Liaison Relationships with Foreign Intelligence Organizations and Foreign Security Services," and provide the Committee a report with recommendations. This requests that you designate a member of your staff to chair such a group, coordinate the review, and provide a report with recommendations by 15 September 1981. Please ensure that the group includes representation from Intelligence Community collection entities which regularly conduct liaison with foreign services.

2. By copy of this memorandum, I request other Security Committee members to designate representatives as appropriate to serve on this working group and to provide information and support as may be necessary to the accomplishment of this task.

DCID No. 1/10

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVE NO. 1/10¹

SECURITY POLICY GUIDANCE ON LIAISON RELATIONSHIPS WITH FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE ORGANIZATIONS AND FOREIGN SECURITY SERVICES

(Effective 18 May 1976)

Pursuant to Section 102 of the National Security Act of 1947, Executive Order 11905 and National Security Council Intelligence Directives, the following is established as security guidance to representatives of US departments, agencies and military commands who conduct, supervise or coordinate liaison with foreign intelligence and security services.

1. The fact of broad, general intelligence cooperation with countries or groups of countries with which the United States maintains formal military alliances or agreements (e.g., NATO) is unclassified.

2. The fact of intelligence cooperation between the United States and a specific governmental component in an Allied country (see 1 above), or description of the nature of intelligence cooperation between the United States and any Allied country is classified Secret unless a different classification is specified.

3. The fact of intelligence cooperation between the United States and specifically named foreign countries and governmental components thereof with which the United States is not allied is normally classified not less than Secret.

4. Details of or specifics concerning any intelligence exchange agreement will be classified according to content.

5. The identities of foreign governmental or military personnel who provide intelligence pursuant to such agreements or liaison relationships will be protected at the same level of classification which applies to the fact of the intelligence cooperation, or at such different level as may be required by their governments or individual circumstances.

6. Information classified in accordance with paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 5 above shall not be released to any foreign country or its representatives except by the mutual agreement of the United States and the foreign country whose intelligence cooperation is involved.

7. Information classified in accordance with this guidance shall be exempt from the provisions of the General Declassification Schedule of Executive Order 11652 under exemptions 5B(1) or 5B(3), or both. Information about the nature of a relationship may be declassified only in accordance with the mutual desires of the United States and the foreign government.

8. This directive does not apply to any liaison relationship that is concerned with U.S. internal security functions, or with criminal or disciplinary matters that are not directly related to foreign intelligence.

¹This directive supersedes DCID 1/10 effective 19 November 1975.
